The Emirates Post Consignment Note (Airway Bill)

The Consignment Note is non-negotiable and the shipper acknowledges that it has been prepared by the shipper, or Emirates Post on behalf of the shipper. The shipper warrants that he/she is still the owner of the goods transported hereunder, or that he/she is the authorized agent of any other person having any interest in the shipment.

2. Shipper Obligation and Acknowledgements

2.1 The shipper/authorized agent warrants the following:

That each article in the shipment is properly described on the Consignment Note. That no article in the shipment has been declared to be unacceptable for transport.

That the shipment is properly marked, addressed, and appropriately packed to ensure safe transportation with ordinary care and handling.

2.2 The shipper understands and agrees that Emirates Post may abandon and/ or release any shipment or part thereof consigned to Emirates Post which has been declared unacceptable, which the has been undervalued, or mis-described whether intentionally or not without incurring any liability whatsoever, and will save, defend, and hold Emirates Post harmless from all claims or damages there from.

2.3 The shipper shall be solely liable for all costs and expenses, which shall include but not be limited to Octroi, Customs Duties or any other taxes, levies, or impost relating to the shipment and for any costs or expenses incurred in returning the shipment to the shipper, including warehousing, storing, or disposing of them in any way whatsoever.

2.4 The shipper understands and agrees that Emirates Post is not a common carrier and that Emirates Post reserves the right at it's sole discretion to refuse or abandon the carriage or transportation of any particular goods for any person, firm, entity, company, or corporation, and the carriage or transportation of any class of goods whatsoever.

3. Right of Inspection of Shipment Emirates Post has the right to inspect any shipment but is under no obligation to do so. If it does so it shall be entitled to open the shipment and examine any package therein. In that event Emirates Post will exercise reasonable care but it shall not be liable for any damage to the shipment or any delay of the shipment arising as a result of such examination.

4. Lien on Goods Transported

Emirates Post shall have a lien on all goods transportation for all freight charges, Customs Duties, advanced or other charges of any type arising out of transportation hereunder and may refuse to surrender possession of the shipment until all such charges owed are paid.

5. Limitation of Liability for Direct Loss

Direct loss means, the destruction or permanent disappearance of the shipment or physical damage to the shipment or any part thereof while in the custody of Emirates Post or its agents. Shipment shall include all documents or merchandise consigned to Emirates Post under the Consignment Note. The liability of Emirates Post for direct loss is limited to the maximum of: dirham 100.00 or,

The total amount of loss or damage actually sustained in respect of any documents or merchandise contained in the shipment subject to (a) above or; The actual, value of all, lost or damaged documents or merchandise contained in the shipment subject to the maximum liability as in (a) above. Without regard to any commercial utility or special value to the shipper/consignee.

IF THE SHIPPER BELIEVES THAT THE VALUE OF THE SHIPMENT EXCEEDS 100.00 dirham HE/SHE IS ADVISED TO OBTAIN APPROPRIATE INSURANCE COVERAGE (See condition 12).

6. Actual Value

6.1 The actual value of a document contained in a shipment which term includes any item declared to be of no commercial value, shall be either its actual cost of production, replacement, reconstruction, repair or reconstitution at the date of shipment shown on the Consignment Note whichever is less.

6.2 The actual value of merchandise in a shipment which terms includes any item declared to be of no commercial value, shall be either the actual cost of production, replacement, reconstruction, resale, or reconstitution at the date of shipment shown on the Consignment Note, or its resale of fair market value at that date whichever is less, provided that the actual value shall not exceed the original cost of the article paid by the shipper plus 10 percent.

7. Exclusion of Consequent Loss

Emirates Post shall not be liable for consequential loss which means any loss or damage other than direct loss suffered or alleged to have been suffered by the shipper or by any other person in consequence of the carriage of the shipment by Emirates Post, its employees, or agents; or in consequences of any breach by Emirates Post or its employees or agents of the agreement to carry the shipment.

8. Exclusion of Liability for Delay

Emirates Post shall not be liable for delay which means any delay in the pick-up, transportation, or delivery of any shipment or any mis-delivery or non-delivery of any shipment caused by the following:
