

Doctor Please! A doctor by your side

It is never easy to make an appointment with a doctor when you are far from home and in a country where you don't speak the language.

With the Doctor Please! Web portal, AXA offers you the possibility of contacting a doctor speaking your language, for a remote consultation, 24 hours a day, wherever you are.

Doctor Please! gives you free access to :

A remote consult with a doctor speaking your language

The possibility to make an appointment at a time that suits you through the web portal, with the code : BE0124

Your prescriptions securely sent within your portal personal space or to the nearest pharmacy
